

Federico Marchetti Founder and CEO of YOOX Group

Born in Ravenna in 1969, Federico Marchetti holds a degree in Economics from Bocconi University in Milan and an MBA from Columbia University. Upon completing his studies, he embarked on a traditional path in the corporate world. While those early years in his career proved to be an invaluable informative experience, he knew all along that he would need to go out on his own to fulfil his professional objective of becoming an entrepreneur.

In 2000, after having served as a strategic advisor for several chief executives and designers in the fashion industry, both in the U.S. and in Italy, he founded YOOX, the perfect venture in which he could unite his business vision with his passion for fashion and design.

YOOX Group is the global Internet retailing partner for leading fashion & design brands. It has established itself amongst the market leaders with the Multi-brand stores yoox.com and thecorner.com as well as with numerous Mono-brand stores all “Powered by YOOX Group.” The Group has logistic centers and offices in Europe, the United States and Japan and delivers in 67 countries in the world.

Established in Italy in 2000, yoox.com is the virtual boutique of multi-brand fashion and design. Thanks to a direct relationship with designers, manufacturers and authorized dealers, yoox.com is an infinite ever-changing source offering rare and innovative styles that are difficult to find in traditional shops. On-going research into new creative possibilities make yoox.com an innovative online space offering exclusive collections by prestigious designers, a carefully selected range of end-of-season clothing and accessories at accessible prices; from vintage collectibles to capsule collections and a unique assortment of books and design.

Launched in 2008, thecorner.com is the virtual space showcasing a selection of artisans and cutting-edge brands for men and women. On thecorner.com, each brand has its own mini-store where the value of image and DNA is raised through its new collections, editorials and exclusive video content.

Since 2006, YOOX Group designs and manages Mono-brand Online Stores for fashion brands looking to offer their latest collection on the Internet. Thanks to years of experience and online shopping expertise, YOOX Group offers its brand-partners a complete solution including a flexible technological platform, innovative interface design, global logistics, excellent customer care, international web marketing and a thorough know-how of e-tailing.
